

Luther Drag Kimrey is a Certified Christian Coach with an extensive manufacturing and sales background; experienced in financial planning; skilled in conflict management and in process of being a certified congregational coach. I have earned degrees from Wake Forest University and Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond; ordained Baptist pastor having served two churches fulltime; and four congregations as an interim pastor. Ordained Baptist Deacon having served a large congregation in many capacities including Chair and Chair-elect. A lifetime of experiences in both the secular and the religious world and skills in coaching clergy and congregations gives me a unique perspective of the needs of the 21st century church.
