

In January, Andy Jung joined the CBFNC staff as Associate Executive Coordinator. His primary responsibility is to support the mission of CBFNC and its ministries and to assist the coordinators in ministering alongside our partner churches.

Prior to coming to CBFNC, Andy served as the pastor of First Baptist of Albemarle for 4.5 years. He also served as Associate Pastor of Students and Administration at Trinity Baptist, Raleigh for 11 years.

Andy earned his undergraduate degree from North Carolina State University in Math Education before earning his Master of Divinity from Campbell University Divinity School. He received his Doctor of Ministry from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, CA in Youth, Family and Culture. Andy also holds an Executive Certificate in Religious Fundraising through IUPUI's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy.

January also witnessed the addition of Santiago Reales as Director of Red Latina, the CBFNC Latino Network. The network was formerly named Companerismo Cristiano Emanuel.

Santiago is a CBF endorsed chaplain at Trellis Supportive Care and has served as pastor and associate pastor at several churches in TX & NC, most recently Associate Pastor of Hispanic-Latino/a Ministry at Piney Grove Baptist Church, Mt. Airy, NC. He holds the Master of Divinity Degree from Gardner-Webb University School of Divinity.

In February, CBFNC was delighted to announce the calling of Charity Roberson as the Campus Minister at East Carolina University. She has also been called to serve as pastor of Mosaic Church, Clayton.

Charity comes to this role with a deep passion for young adults and for bi-vocational ministry. She served nine years as the Raleigh Area Baptist Campus Minister with the Baptist State Convention of NC and most recently has served with the Baptist General Association of Virginia as a Field Strategist and Ministry Placement Coach.

Charity received her undergraduate degree from UNCG and her Masters of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry from Campbell University Divinity School.

Our newest staff member is Scott Hudgins, who began April 1. He serves as director of the Helping Pastors Thrive program. Scott holds a BA in History and Religious Studies from the University of Richmond, Virginia. He received his M. Div. from Union Theological Seminary in New York and completed

Staff Changes

The first half of 2019 has brought several changes to the CBFNC staff.

his coursework toward a Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in Adult Education, Curriculum Development and Higher Education Policy.

As a lay leader at First, Winston-Salem, Hudgins has served as a deacon, chair of the Finance Committee, chair of the Personnel Committee, on the Pastor Search Committee and numerous other responsibilities. He has also been an active leader of CBFNC for many years. He has chaired the Endowment Board and served on the Coordinating Council, Selection Committee for the Lolley Scholarship and much more. He was also instrumental in writing the proposal for the Thriving In Ministry grant through the Lilly Endowment.

CBFNC Missions Coordinator, Linda Jones, has announced her intention to retire at the end of June, 2019. Linda has served in this capacity since 2006. CBFNC Executive Coordinator, Larry Hovis, celebrated Linda's ministry with CBFNC:

"Linda was exactly what we needed in a Missions Coordinator when we called her to this role back in 2006. Early on, she strengthened our overseas partnerships in Ukraine and Belize and built an infrastructure for New Church Starts that was eventually adopted by the larger CBF community. She consulted with countless churches on various aspects of their missions ministries, always sounding the call not simply to do missions activities, but to be missional churches. Her leadership and support of our Latino Network has been phenomenal as well as her patient coordination of racial reconciliation ministries. From her home base in CBFNC she has provided leadership throughout CBF, and served in a dual role with CBF Global missions during the last phase of her tenure. It has been a pleasure and a privilege to serve with Linda. I will miss her greatly on our staff team and wish her great blessings in her much-deserved retirement."
