- Leaders from routine management to relevant ministry
- Your church from maintenance to mission
- Pastors from carrying your church to coaching your church
- Leaders from dysfunctional leadership to soulful-leadership

Author Eddie Hammett has knowledge to share from years of leadership and coaching experience. Edward Hammett, PCC, is member of international coach federation, American Society of Training and Development and founding partner of The Columbia Partnership. His three decades of denominational and local church service allows him to bring practical guidance for organizations seeking greater relevancy and impact in a rapidly changing culture. He is a popular seminar leader, consultant and leadership coach. Visit www.thecolumbiapartnership.org for more information about The Columbia Partnership.

His books Spiritual Leadership in a Secular Age: Building Bridges Instead of Barriers, Reaching People under 40 while Keeping People over 60: Being Church for All Generations, and the forthcoming Making Shifts without Making Waves: A Coach Approach to Soulful Leadership are great resources whether you are a pastor or leader in the church.

Order all three books with this special promotional bundle and save 40% off the retail price. All three books will be included in one shipment to you upon the release of Making Shifts without Making Waves in October.
