

Kay Smith's passion is to encourage individual's within the church (the body of Christ) to model the transforming power of Jesus Christ in mission and ministry. Kay holds a Bachelor of Science degree, Master of Arts in School Counseling, Master of Arts in School Administration, and a Master of Arts in Divinity and Religious Education.

Kay has extensive experience and training in Pastoral Care- Counseling, and Hospital Chaplaincy. She has trained through the Center for Congregational Health in Church Consultation - Facilitator Training, and Interim Ministry. In addition, as a School Counselor, she has had extensive training in Conflict Resolution and Mediation.

Kay is a certified Life Coach through Valwood and Coach Approach Ministries. Through CBF, she has been mentored and trained by Edward Hammett in Congregational Coaching.

Kay has served on the staff of local churches in the capacities of Associate Pastor, Minister of Education -Activities, and Youth Minister. She has served the local church in a variety of volunteer capacities such as Deacon, Deacon Chairperson, Missions leader, Sunday School Teacher, Retreat leader, Women's Ministry and Grief Share coordinator, and has served on various ministry-missions teams. dkaysmith@charter.net