once-in-a-lifetime opportunity

You've never seen anything like this before! Coming to North Carolina on March 30th during CBFNC's 2017 "As You Go" events is a comedy act like no other in the world. We're bringing to you from New York City a Baptist minister, a Jewish Rabbi, and a Muslim storyteller who will perform together on stage at The Crossing in Hickory.

Susan Sparks, an ordained Baptist minister and Senior Pastor at Madison Avenue Baptist Church in NYC, is one of the performers. Reverend Sparks is originally from Charlotte and attended UNC Chapel Hill and also received a law degree from Wake Forest University, so she knows a lot about things in our state. Susan will also be our keynote speaker the next day at our Annual Gathering at First, Hickory.

Bob Alper, a Jewish Rabbi, has been performing stand-up comedy for years. Rabbi Bob can be heard on radio every week and was recently named "Honorary Comedic Advisor to the Pope." Wow! What a combination!

Aman Ali, an American-born Muslim, is an award-winning storyteller, writer, and comedian. This will be Ali's first appearance in North Carolina and he's really looking forward to meeting folks from our great state.

The show will last about an hour and a half, ending with a Q&A session. After that, the comedians will hang out with the crowd until everyone leaves.

Tickets are $25 per person and seating is limited. Order your tickets at www.cbfnc.org. This could be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Don't miss it!
