

Where can we go on a mission trip?

Northeast Shelby, NC

bcecelia@hotmail

Cecelia Beck ministers as an outreach worker in the struggling “Northeast Shelby Weed and Seed” area. By “weeding” out violence and other problems, the community can be “seeded” to allow for a healthier and more hopeful future. She lives out incarnational ministry to her neighbors focusing on the neighborhood children, forming deep relationships, and walking alongside them. Individuals and teams are always welcome to come and help. Walmart gift cards, gas cards, meals, school supplies and mentoring are always needed.

Northeastern NC

www.morethancans.org

LaCount and Anna Anderson serve in poverty relief, focusing on food distribution, home repair, and ministering to homeless men, women and children. Mission teams can assist in distributing food, nutrition education, as well as Christian education. Three groups per summer: one each for June, July, and August. Donations of clothing or food are always needed.

Together for Hope of eastern Kentucky

www.ruralpoverty.net/

Paula Settle serves in Owsley County, KY. Teams will be going to this Together for Hope project and participating in repairs, day trips with teens, senior adult activities, and preparing food boxes for seniors. Ministry funds for furniture, clothes, household items, Kroger gift cards are always needed.

Together For Hope of Arkansas

www.cbfar.org mpalmer022@gmail.com

Join Molly Palmer and Stacey Henderson, who are based at Helena Community Center engaging in literacy and youth development. Come be a part of CBF’s Rural Poverty Initiative reaching out to the Helena community. Teams, families and individuals are invited each summer to participate in the ACC – the All Church Challenge that will include a 2-week KidsCamp July 11-17 and July 18-24. You may volunteer at Swimming Camp during the ACC or another week. Building renovations, community garden help, Delta Jewels sale parties and other micro-enterprise opportunities are needed.

Belize Church-to-Church Ministry

Ljones@cbfnc.org

Belize, an English-speaking country south of Mexico, offers opportunities for church-to-church covenant. Ministry needs include construction, VBS, discipleship and leadership training. A new sanctuary is being constructed for Sand Hills Baptist Church in Belize.

Belize Rescue Home Construction

jamseekservesave@gmail.com

Eric and Julie Maas minister with the Child Development Foundation, a social justice ministry focusing on outreach, counseling, and sensitizations on abuse and exploitation of children. Construction teams are needed to build the new Rescue Home. Financial partners are also needed.

Passport, Inc.

www.passportcamps.org

Passport is a nonprofit company whose goal is integrated, ecumenical, inspirational weeks of summer camp that model important lessons like service in the name of Christ. Passport Kids for 3rd-6th grades take place in multiple sites. 6th-12th grade students can join Passport Choices and Passport Missions.

San Francisco Bay Area

rsample@thefellowship.info

Rick and Lita Sample minister among internationals – refugees, immigrants, international students – and advocate on behalf of victims of human trafficking. They work with people from Afghanistan, Iran, Burma, Turkey, and many other places. Mission groups are encouraged to come, such as family mission trips, youth mission trips, prayer walking, and cultural experiences. Teams are able to visit different places of worship – Mosque, Buddhist Temple, Sikh Temple and other cultural places – along with learning something about those religions.

Living Faith Ministry in Lebanon

operationantioch@hotmail.com

Chaouki and Maha Boulos minister to the people of the Middle East. An evangelistic weekend celebration is held in the spring and an open-air, seven-day event called “Celebrate Jesus” is held every summer. Mission teams can help with the following: camps for orphan kids, refugee kids, and sports camps; Celebration events; women’s ministry Bible studies; and humanitarian ministries among the most neglected people. Food packages and other help for the millions of Syrian refugees are greatly needed.

Charlotte

www.qcfamilytree.org www.littletreenc.org

The Family Tree in Enderly Park focuses on being kinfolk rooted in discipleship in West Charlotte, as they share life together at the corner of Tuckaseegee and Parkway. Opportunities include working with children and youth, renovating an art studio, and setting up a creativity work space. Household donations are always needed. Little Tree, located on 25 acres of farm land in west Lincoln County, is focused on food ministry and agriculture as economic opportunity. Mission opportunities include a retreat center, local farming and poverty initiatives.

Barcelona, Spain

michelleandmatt@yahoo.com

Matt and Michelle Norman are partnering with the Union of Evangelical Baptists of Spain working with immigrants and refugees from North and West Africa, Central Asia and Latin America. Mission teams can participate in the Mission Learning Lab, a spiritual formation process that helps a church discover and engage with the most neglected in their own community. The Normans are looking for churches willing to covenant long-term in friendship and ministry.

Romania

rstocks@thefellowship.info

Ralph and Tammy Stocks minister to 1st-8th grade Romany students at the Ruth School. Summer volunteer opportunities include Vacation Bible School, construction, and repair. During the school year help is needed with teacher appreciation week, Mom's club and English Club activities. Teachers can volunteer to provide in-services for the staff of Ruth School with particular emphasis on teaching unique students.

Japan

cfoushee@thefellowship.info

Carson and Laura Foushee serve in local church ministry partnering with Kanazawa Baptist Church through a partnership between CBF and the Japan Baptist Convention. The Foushees are currently focused on learning Japanese culture and language, leading English and Japanese worship services, teaching English to the church's kindergarten students and their families, and building relationships with locals and internationals residing in the city.

Touching Miami with Love

(305) 416-0435 x203

touchingmiamiwithlove.org

Jason and Angel Pittman's mission is to share the love of Christ by providing hope, opportunities, and resources with the Overtown community. The children and youth of Overtown need a safe haven from negative influences and a place to develop essential life skills. TML provides a sense of home and supplies the tools and support needed to be a strong family. We invite participants to serve alongside us. Volunteers are needed during the school year and summer (July 27- July 31).

Waterbury, Connecticut

(203) 745-5140

Waterbury Baptist Ministry, an inner-city church in Waterbury, CT, was planted by Dr. Maner Tyson, Director/Pastor in 1991. Worship, fellowship, and ministries provide love, hope, and care to this multi-ethnic church. An adult Bible camp and an 8-week children's summer camp ministers to 400 people each week and needs volunteers.

Bali

djonor@mac.com

Jonathan and Tina Bailey encourage Christian artists to stay connected to their cultures, using the music, dance and visual arts of their native community to express Christian faith. They hope that these expressions will help remove the walls between communities and local churches. They encourage churches and individuals to partner with Christian artists and communities around the world. They hope CBFers with skills in music, dance, painting, drama and other art forms will share their gifts with fellow artists in Bali.

Haiti

CBF (800) 353-8741 steve.james@internationalministries.org

Partnering with the Haitian Baptist Convention, Steve and Nancy James travel regularly to small, church-related medical clinics. They provide medical training and encouragement to the staff, help find medicines and supplies, and consult with patients. Jenny Jenkins uses her medical experience to serve the people of Haiti, working to improve the continuity of health care.

Kiev, Ukraine

podgaisky@juno.com

Gennady and Mina Podgaisky have learned how to recognize street children and how to help transform the lives of orphans, runaways, and children at risk. The Podgaiskys form relationships with street children, assist in providing them with basic necessities, and help those who want to move off the streets. The Podgaiskys helped start the Village of Hope, a foster care facility operated by the Ukrainian Center for Christian Cooperation. Mission teams are welcome to come and minister to children.

Texas

(870) 995-3518 bnewell22@gmail.com

Ben and Leonora Newell are working in Christian economic development in the Texas colonias. The Business As Mission (BAM) principle helps start, grow and sustain businesses, and equip Christian entrepreneurs to run productive businesses. The south Texas mission pilgrimage for 2015 include BAM, homeless ministry, immigration, human trafficking all wrapped up in cultural learning and exchange. Cultural activities include cooking and ESL. BAM activities include business-related classes, concrete countertop incubator, pizza-oven construction and construction work on earth-block houses.

