Dear Larry,

Wingate University wishes to express its continued appreciation for the friendship and support we receive from the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina. Without this relationship, many of our campus programs and opportunities would be greatly diminished.

Let me share a few of the ways in which CBFNC and Wingate are working together to make a difference on this campus and in the surrounding communities:

- This year we intentionally recruited ministers who are serving CBFNC churches that support the Mission Resource Plan to become members of Wingate's Board of Ministers. We believe this will give them a greater appreciation for their partnership with CBFNC and Wingate University.
- Our graduating seniors were honored to have Dr. Larry Hovis present the Baccalaureate message this year.
- One of our staff members recently served as a short-term interim pastor for First Baptist, Monroe at the request of CBFNC leadership. He encouraged the church to secure an Intentional Interim Pastor through the Center for Congregational Health which they did.
- Wingate's Minister to Students led some of our students on an alternative spring break experience which was mission focused.
- We invited all of the divinity schools associated with the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship to visit our campus and recruit potential students to their campuses this year.
- Several of our faculty and staff assist area CBFNC churches as they are called upon.
- Numerous students receive financial aid to help them with internships, service learning opportunities, global studies and scholarship assistance as a result of the funds we receive from CBFNC. Upon graduation, these students will enter careers and communities making a difference as a result of the education they received at Wingate, made possible, in part, by your generous support.
