

Christ has set us free...

Together

– Gal. 5:1; Heb. 10:24–25

March 19–20, 2026 | Hayes Barton Baptist, Raleigh

Why should I attend CBFNC's Annual Gathering?

1

Enjoy Howling Cow ice cream treats on Thursday evening.

2

Join other Baptists to build a Habitat for Humanity home in Wake County on Thursday morning.

3

Engage with representatives from divinity schools and ministry organizations.

4

Take part in a Baptist history walking/biking tour!

5

Find out how you can support and learn more about fighting hunger in our state (our annual gathering offering).

6

Enjoy free breakfast pastries on Friday morning with new and old friends from across the state!

7

Choose from a wide variety of workshops! Either dig more deeply into your area of interest, or learn something new!

8

See and meet Author Andrew Root at Thursday's Leadership Forum!

9

Hear two NC pastors—David Hailey (Hayes Barton Baptist) and Kristen Tucker (First Baptist Smithfield)—bring words of challenge and encouragement.

10

Take what you experienced to your churches to share and implement in your ministry settings.
