

Nomination Form | The Randall & Lou Lolley Fund for Theological Education

The goal of the Lolley Fund for Theological Education is to support men and women preparing for Christian ministry enrolled in seminary or divinity schools who have a commitment to serving in Baptist congregations and ministries. The Lolley Fund is an initiative of the Endowment Management Board of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina.

Candidates for the scholarships must be nominated by submitting this form and a letter of nomination. Factors that contribute to suitability include (1) evidence of a strong commitment to Christian vocation; (2) an active record of leadership and/or participation in a Baptist congregation; (3) exceptional promise for leadership and vocational ministry, and (4) demonstrated maturity in character, personal integrity and intellectual acuity. The Lolley Awards are merit awards, and reflect CBFNC's commitment to supporting theological students who embody the highest values and commitments of our congregations.
